WHEAT DRILL

Then Our "New Peoria" Is What You Want

It has perfect working discs, fitted with dust proof chilled bearings, single draw bars that will not gather trash, staggard spoke wheels with 7-inch hub and 3-inch tires, continuous rear bar with truss rod to support seat and keep drill from sagging, direct pressure in rear of disc; a feature we claim will make this drill work perfectly in any land suitable for sowing grain and where other drills cannot be operated. A seat in center of drill convenient to lever is also furnished. Drop in and let us show you what this drill can do, and furnish you with the names of a score of satisfied users. One feature of our drill that puts it in a class by itself and makes it superior to all other drills on the market is the "Peoria Disc Shoe." You won't find the disc shoe on any other press drill on earth, the Peoria people have that feature cinched and they are going to hang on to it. If you want to know why we can grow more wheat to the acre after this drill than any other with the same amount of grain sown, come in and let us explain to you the "New Peoria Disc Shoe Drill."

PORTLAND, ME., September 9th.—Maine returned to the Republican party in the state election today, William T. Haines of Waterville, being elected Governor over Governor Frederik W. Plaisted, his Democratic opponent, who sought a second term, while the Republicans regained one of the two Congressional districts lost to the Democrats two years ago.

Returns for Governor from 650 out of 634 election districts give: Haines, Republican, 66,121; Plaisted, Democrat, 62,127.

Results for the Legislature show 8 Republicans and 3 Democratic Senators and 43 Republicans and 3 Democratic Representatives.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.

To every laboring man with a job to keep and a family to support, with a tongue to proclaim and a vote to back up his opinion, "it is important to hold fast to that which is good" —for his home, his country and himself. The Protection cause has been his tried and true friend, has produced the means by which he earns his bread, clothes his body, gives him a roof over his head and permits him to educate his children.

Will P. Scott, of Dawson Springs one of the leading Republicans in that section of the State, cannot understand why it is The Herald is supporting Roosevelt in preference to Taft. Evidently Mr. Scott has lost sight of the fact that The Herald has always been a Progressive newspaper and that the principles for which Mr. Roosevelt is now fighting are the very same the Herald has been advocating for many years.—Louisville Herald.

And, evidently, Mr. Scott has lost sight of the most important fact, i. e., that just before the National Republican convention at Chicago, The Louisville Herald and four other newspapers, controlled by one Shaffers, The Terre Haute Star, The Indianapolis Star, Munroe Star and The Chicago Evening Post, all went over to Roosevelt. Of course that's "progressive," but wonder how much?

WOULD BE NEARER $9.90.

A news item in a local Democratic paper reads:

J. Walter Skirven & Co., recently paid a farmer $99 for four calves. That's going some for the live stock market.

And, let us add, this is under a Republican administration and a Protective Tariff. The price under Democratic Free-Trade would be nearer $9.90. Refer to the Cleveland administration prices.—Chesterstown (Md) Enterprise.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The easier it is for a girl to get wisdom the harder it is for her to get beans.

Usually the reason for a woman's trusting a man is there isn't any.

For a photograph to be good of a woman nobody must be able to recognize it.

A woman's idea of big gambling is taking chances on dressing against the weather.

A girl can do more damage with a pair of eyes than a man can with a pair of pistols.

The time a man finds he isn't a natural born inventor is when he tries to get the key into the lock of his door at 3 o'clock in the morning.

All the money in the world, if a man had it, couldn't keep him from getting nervous about some of it when a poor relation wanted to see him.—New York Press.

The Kentucky Legislature was such a joke itself that about every measure passed was nullified by a little joker. In a recent case at Louisville where a joy rider was arrested for speeding, it was brought out that the Kentucky law provides that an automobile must have gone at a speed exceeding fifteen miles an hour for more than an eighth of a mile. Judge Boldrick granted that this had not been shown and dismissed the charge of exceeding the speed limit. He said it was unfortunate that the Legislature should have made such a provision. An eighth of a mile is approximately two blocks, and an auto can go that far at a 60-mile an hour clip before it slows up, and it is therefore not amenable to the law. No wonder all Kentucky Legislatures are jokes—but very expensive jokes.

THE MENACE TO PROSPERITY.

The only present menace to prosperity is the rather remote possibility of the Democrats securing a national victory. Then, under apprehension of another Mills tariff law money would be withdrawn from manufacturing and transportation and a panic result. The enactment of the banking bill based upon the world-wide information secured by the monetary commission might mitigate this situation although it would not obviate it.

CAN WILSON CHEAPEN MEAT?

The statistics of the Census Bureau shows that during the ten years preceding their report the number of cattle raised on the American Continent had fallen off over 6,000,000 head, hogs nearly 5,000,000 and sheep nearly 9,000,000.

Will Mr. Wilson, President, make good his promise to reduce the cost of living by removing the small farmers and again making free range for flocks and herds and reduce the cost of farm land from $110 to $30 per acre.

Political Pickings

Boston Transcript: How happy for T. R. could the year 1904 be blotted from the calendar.

Columbus, O., Dispatch: T. R.'s throat may wear out, but his typewriter, never.

Philadelphia Inquirer: The spectacle of Bill Flint standing at Armageddon and battling for the Lord is enough to wring tears from the eyes of the most case-hardened sinner that ever refused conversion.

Columbia State: Colonel Roosevelt announces that he has only kindly feelings toward Woodrow Wilson. He used to have only kindly feelings toward William Howard Taft.

Milwaukee Sentinel: We are compelled to lift our hat to Governor Johnson. He has achieved a high position in spite of the fact that his name is Hiram.

Boston Advertiser: Judge Parker's notification speech must have been a record for him. It is the first time that anything ever fell when he made a speech.

Study taxes the brain and nerves of the growing youngsters.

Certainly, that's natural and expected; and if fed right, they grow rosy in body and hearty in brain.

There is no guesswork here, but absolute dependable fact that can be made use of by any parent sufficiently interested in the child's development to investigate.

ODNEY'S MELANGE

from Little Old New York—
The "Buckfus" of Modern Politics Go To a Skinning

Witty and Charming Letter From Brilliant Maysvillian

NEW YORK CITY, September 6th, 1912.
Editor Public Ledger: The wonder grows whether or not the time will ever arrive when the American public will cease to exalt the man, and in his stead will raise their voices in loud acclamation for the idea; the concrete principles he undertakes to illustrate and upon which his omnipotent egoism depends?

I wonder if we, as a people will ever outgrow the falacy of hero worship?

"What is man that thou hast such respect unto him?"

Finally, I wonder if we, as individuals, will ever realize what an insignificant fraction of the very best of us occupy in the vast firmament of knowledge and power; and having realized it, be willing to concede the fact, that in this infinitesimal field of endeavor; in this mighty constellation of impelling forces governing human life, even the brightest star grows dim?

The biggest of us, if we did but know it, when we come to be weighed with the right scales, amount to no more than the little self conscious goat that once perched itself on the horn of an ox and graciously offered to remove the atomic burden of his insiginary weight if it tended to incommodate the all unconscions steer.

That nominative pronoun, first person singular—"I" or its objective—"Me," is as repugnant to the palate of true philosophy as selfishness and personal ambition is to real patriotism.

When you find a man whose sole desire is to serve and help his fellow men, you will find the type that nearest meets the ends of both patriot and philosopher, but he never prods his chest with his index finger and says "I;" neither does he protrude his chin and invite the polarstar, by word of mouth or intuado "ta gaza on 'ma."

Now if there happens to be a twentieth century Diogenes sauching around with a dark lantern looking for a citizen who is built that way, I fear he will have to replenish his keroseene many a time and oft before he searchlight spots the right duck. He will run across a whois multitude with the self-placed brand. It is plainly defined in capitals, and quite a large number whose crust would indicate that they were an expurgated edition of the whole cheese—Switzer cheese of course. But they ain't. They are just skip-pars in the cheese, that's all.

Most of the business is, I often wonder that the cheese left, there's so many skip-pars.

It is not actual. It is merely what we think it is. It is a quasi judicial opinion, on the part of one or many, which is subject to recall.

When I was a boy reading history the books spoke of a certain chap called "Alexander the Great," who cut considerable capers in Macadoo only a short while ago (B. C. 356). Modern books, if they call attention to him at all speak of that same guy as plain Alexander. I think some of them put "Bill" as a handle to it and even the up-to-date poets pass him up with this simple notice—

"There was a man in our town;
His name was Alexander.
He ears each weighed about a pound,
And his nose stuck way out yander."

For a considerable spell after they planted the remains of Hoo, George Washington it was quite generally conceded that he was entitled to wear the belt as "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." Today you can shut your eyes and throw a dornick, and it will bounce off the nute of a half dozen high brows who are able to demonstrate by military statistics and according to Guster, that as a General, the immortal G. W. didn't know how to fight a humbie's nest. See!

The board of aldermen in common council assembled at Maysville only last Saturday night, decided Nem. con. that Longfellow was a Mut, and a short skite when he wrote Hiawatha. "Truth to tell," remarked alderman Goudrich, "I find that Mr. Longfellow was some liar in his sing song way." So there you are O'Shaughness.

Now this we know some red headed, wavy eyed, hair-lipped college professor will be telling us that the Marquis de Quoansbury, and not Moses was the archaeologist who excavated the Ten Commandments out of the soft tertiary strata of Uncle Jacka Onton's tinsop.

THE PRAISE THAT COMES FROM THANKFUL MAYSVILLE PEOPLE

One kidney remedy has known merit. Maysville people rely upon it.

That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills.

Maryville testimony proves it reliable.

Frederick Dresel, 1238 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Since I need Doan's Kidney Pills, in 1908, I have not had kidney trouble. All that I said at that time praising this remedy still holds good—I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and annoyance from my kidney. The passages of the kidney secretions are irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at the Wood & Son's Drug Store. They gave me prompt relief and I know that they are an excellent remedy."

For instance, several years ago the greatest man in the public eye of New York was the then sublime genius who invented and gave to a thirty world the "Manhattan cocktail!" Hah! Fame is transitory, for here comes along another scion who adds a raspberry to the concoction; calls it ein "Hansen Schwanz," springs it at the Army and Navy Club, and now they have thrown Peter Stuyvesant's hat on the junk pile and that of the mixologist occupies his niche in the temple of fame.

The "Hansen Schwanz" club of this city keeps an active pet snake continuously on hand which bites the initiated after the second drink in order to test the efficacy of the "Hansen Schwanz" as an antidote.

Efforts are being made to induce Col.

Theodore Roosevelt to become a member in view of the fact that he has been heard to swear that he never tasted a cocktail in his life; and proved it by the Rev. Lyman Abbot, who has been using the curvy comb on Taddy ever since he developed as a race horse. It is urged that a sip or two of the "Hansen Schwanz" will have a tendency to confirm his qualifications as the high-neck-s-muck of the Ann Arbor club. Confirm! Teel Hee! That sounds as funny as a pair of new shoes.

Yes lady, greatness is, as a general proposition, about as much value in the game as a four-card spade flush. If you can put the buff over once or twice, all right, but take my advice, and don't bet more than two bones on it.

The trouble is great men can't stick on the job. They don't stay great. Well bath the psalmist observed that—"The days of man are but as grass; for he flourishes as a grasshopper of the field, when, lo, bing! and he is gone, and becomes a Pelican in the wilderness." This may not be a literal quotation, but it carried the tune.

The suggestion has been made in the first part of this letter that the real patriot is never an egotist. If this is so the irrepressible Theodore L. about as near resembles the real stuff as a Jack rabbit looks like the tail-feather of a rainbow.

Teddy can use the nominative pronoun, first person singular, in fixt space, just about as fast as Buffalo Bill can pull the trigger of his double buck-action, automatic pump gun.

I took the trouble to go through his letter to Chairman Clegg and in his epistlesome attempt to call Penrose and Archbold liars, (a trick the average Maysville politician could turn in two shakes of a sheep's tail, or in the twinkling of a huckeye; that is, if the Maysville pol was properly stimulated) and I find that in the course of that letter he used the word

"me" or "my" 208 times, and got stuck on the first person singular 312 times in order to make himself perfectly understood; and this too, in spite of the fact that he starts out by saying of the statements of Penrose and Arch-old—"In one sense, of course, these statements need no answer."

Oh, it's a measly shame that these people won't stop lying about Theodore and give him a chance to catch his wind and hand us his receipt how to cure the high cost of living, the mangle, infant paralysis, prickly heat and cold country bams. You know he said he was the only bird in trousser that could do it—but they won't give him a chance. They keep him too busy denouncing.

Woodrow Wilson says it's the high Tariff that is the responsible devil for all the mischief.

The Peasee Has Been says it's Wall street, while quite a respectable bunch of hand-made,

non-mach, copper-distilled college professors say that they only have doped the thing out right and along the lines of the very latest fashions in political economy, an are prepared to bet from $4.35 to any part of a million that we all need in Keeley treatment, the gold core. That if we don't look on the over production of gold will make us get down to grits and sow-belly. Hence, we have been holding our breath waiting on our own Theodore to make one last bet.

In the mean time here are a few observations coming within the range of your humble servant's corp d'oeil, which may prove interesting, if not quite instructive.

I have contracted the habit of going down to Washington market at the foot of Barclay street three times a week to procure chuck for my hana and chickens, and I can buy as follows:

12 pounds of potatoes (excellent ones) .00.06

1 dozen corn .16

1 quart of lima beans .16

1 dozen tomatoes .10

3 pounds of rice .18

1 hog rolled oats .10

1 pound of butter .28

1 loaf of bread .05

3 to 4 pounds weak fish .25

1 pound breakfast bacon .14

1 bottle pasteurized milk .05

No mention is made herate of the cost of beef, mutton, pork or chicken. They all come high, of course, but for the purpose of following, they are not considered in this summary.

The corner of Ninety-second street and West End avenue they are excavating for a great apartment house, and the forces employed are some forty or fifty "waps" recently imported from Italy ostensibly to do this kind of work, but ready to make desirables (?) Democratic repeaters for Tammany and to teach us the big art of enforcing blackmail by tickling with a bomb.

At 12 o'clock they knock off and feed. They all sit down in the shade together and stuff their face with their noonday repast—that's what it is, a repast. I've watched them and made a note of their menu. What do they have? Well, some things that would cause the eyes of their fellow "guineys" over in Rome to bulge out so far on their cheek bones that you could knock them off with a stick. They have—watch me:

Whet bread ham sandwich. Yum-sir!

Rye bread, beef or mutton. Wha-t?

Apple pie. Oh, shut up!

A large tomato. Quite foolish.

Potatoes, boiled and boiled corn. Do tell.

Pesches, costing 2 for 5. Go way from here.

Bottle of milk—I quart.

And last, but not least, the whole washed down with as good beer as was ever poured down the sewer of such bestheens.

This is no pipe dream; I see it every day.

High cost of living? What roll? I quit talking about the high cost of living, you blabber demagogues, and try your mettle on

NOVEMBER 13TH

is the Date Set for Planting One Tree From Each County in Capital Grounds

The most complete arboretum in this country will be on the Capitol grounds in Frankfort if the suggestions of H. F. Illinoymeyer of Lexington, and Professor H. Garman, State Entomologist, are carried out regarding the trees to be planted on the grounds November 13th.

The Capitol Commission, after a conference with Mr. Illinoymeyer and Professor Garman, have selected the trees indigenous to the soil of this state and assigned one to each county, to be planted November 13th.

The Capitol Commission has ordered a road built along the brow of the hill enclosing the Capitol grounds in the rear, and the arboretum will be planted along the road.
